RECEPTION

THE PLACE THAT TIME FORGOT

The place that time forgot is a reconstruction of the hall of a railway station in the 1900s. The murals, painted by a Lyonnais artist, represent the well-known sites of the south of the Beaujolais region, the region of the yellow stone buildings, and right up to the Mâconnais region.

THE CAFÉ OF TWO CLOCKS

At Hameau Dubœuf, pleasure is also found in the food. To satisfy all of your gourmet desires, Hameau Dubœuf invites you to take part in its dining experience, in which the food is traditional of the region. The café of two clocks has many options available to you: full meals, specials of the day, snacks...

THE CAFÉ OF TWO CLOCKS

The restaurant is at the heart of our wine park, in the style of a train station in 1900. All throughout the year, the café of two clocks has the capacity to welcome more than 150 people. For special occasions, we have private areas that can welcome up to 500 guests.

THE CAFÉ TERRACE

The café has on offer a large variety of options: full meals, specials of the day, snacks, birthday treats...
service is from 10h to 18h

THE MUSEOLOGY

MORE THAN 2000 YEARS OF HISTORY

Hameau Dubœuf has accumulated a collection of more than 3000 artefacts that date back to 2000 years of the history and evolution of wine making. An extraordinary voyage of discovery that will incite curiosity and captivate the true connoisseurs of viticulture.

THE MUSEOLOGY

THE WINE CELLARS

The wine cellars are used for the ageing of wine in oak barrels, such as the 'Moulin à Vent' of the Beaujolais region and the 'Pouilly-Fuissé' of the Mâconnais region.

THE WINE CELLARS

THE ROOM OF AMPELOGRAPHY

MY BEAUJOLAIS

'Le Toine' is a winemaker from the Beaujolais region. He is a rather grumpy old man, but his grandson manages to persuade him to tell the visitors of Hameau Dubœuf about the history of his land. It is the beginning of an incredible immersive experience and is the newest attraction of Hameau Dubœuf. Sitting in Le Toine's wine-cellar, the visitor starts upon a magnificent voyage through time.

MY BEAUJOLAIS

Thanks to its projections and special effects, visitors are taken on a journey through the ages. From the Roman invasion to the industrial revolution of the 19th Century, lasting 15 minutes, you will become actors in the beautiful history of the Beaujolais by learning about the often harsh lifestyles of viticulturists as well as the evolution of the climate and nature of the Beaujolais region.

THE 3D FILM: 'LA R'VOLE'

This 3D film is based on the theme of the celebrations that take place at the end of the wine harvest, with famous personalities: Bernard Pivot, Christian Marian and famous chef Paul Bocuse.

CINÉ UP

Climb aboard the simulation pods and move along to the projections on the two giant screens. Visitors will be able to discover the beauty of the scenic Beaujolais and Mâconnais landscapes.

THE EXHIBITION HALL

The exhibition hall of advertising posters. These are originals, certain posters date back to the beginning of the 20th century.

WINE TRADE

The visit continues with artefacts and information of the wine trade: the wine making process, the making of wine barrels, the making of glass and the making of the corks

THE TASTING ROOM

Guests will finish their visit at Hameau Dubœuf in the magnificent wine tasting room, accompanied by music from an organ.

THE WINE TASTING

A sommelier will suggest and explain different wines of the Beaujolais and Mâconnais regions to our guests.

NEWS

THE TRAIN STATION AND IMPERIAL TRAIN CARRIAGE

NEWS

L'IMPÉRIAL

Hameau Duboeuf celebrates its 30 years since their opening, and it will take place at the train station which is being completely renovated for the occasion. As of the 8th of april 2023 a brand new sound and light show "l'Impérial" is to be discovered by the visitors.

THE LITTLE TRAIN

For the enjoyment of the old and the young, the little train of Hameau Dubœuf will take you from the wine museum to the vinification centre.

THE BEAUJOLAIS GARDEN

At the heart of the vineyards, the garden of Beaujolais allows visitors to discover the scents of flowers, fruits and spices that make up the rich aromas of wine. It is the perfect place for plant enthusiasts and families alike. Climb aboard our 'rosalies' and discover our gardens. For our younger visitors of 3+, we have 'sulky's' available.

LE CENTRE DE VINIFICATION

The vinification centre of the wines of Georges Dubœuf puts visitors at the heart of viticulture and wine production. Here, the techniques of making wine are explained, where technology and a respect for old traditions come together in the wine barrels and the 150 stainless steel tanks.

EXPLORE GAME

THE ENIGMA OF THE HAMLET

since 1993, Hameau Dubœuf has welcomed thousands of visitors to discover the richness of the Beaujolais region. From cultural traditions to fine wine tastings, this place delights the curious and lovers of wine.

For a long time, strange things have been putting this remarkable place in peril: objects disappearing, vines dying, some visitors have even claimed to have seen a ghost in the hallways of the hamlet! Concerned by these strange phenomena, the god Bacchus decided to come down to earth in the form of a mere mortal to carry out an investigation. When you visit the Beaujolais region and our hamlet, you will have no idea what awaits you... Become a part of the investigation of the strange figure that haunts the hamlet. Look for clues, take on challenges and foil the hidden traps on your way!

There is not much time left to save the hamlet!

EXPLOR GAMES® AU JARDIN EN BEAUJOLAIS

LA LÉGION DE MÉTAL

Explore games Immerses you into a unique experience, in a team, with family or with friends. Equipped with a touchscreen tablet, Explor games is a digital treasure hunt... however the riddles and challenge's waiting for you are very real!

The year is 1899. The industrial Revolution has dramatically changed the daily life in cities and in the country. In this society full of promise, an old inventor discovered the secret to perpetual movement. A unique technology capable of making machines work exceeding the imagination! But such power will inevitably attract greed and the inventor was kidnapped.

You are students of the legendary detective Sherlock Holmes, go on an adventure, following the footsteps of mysterious criminals who threaten to use the invention for their dark projects. Solve the challenges and escape the traps left by evil spirits.
